

Wanda Helfert

November 29, 1928 - July 17, 2013

Wanda (Lindauer) Helfert, age 84, of Evansville, passed away Wednesday, July 17, 2013 at Deaconess Hospital Main Campus.

Mrs. Helfert was a homemaker and had worked for Mead Johnson Company many years ago. She was well known for making Christmas ornaments and enjoyed giving them to family and friends to display on their Christmas trees. Wanda also loved to bowl.

Surviving Wanda are two daughters, Cindy (Robert) Rexing and Marian Kissel, both of Evansville; two sons, Steve (Bev) Helfert of Evansville and Jeff (Terri) Helfert of Ft. Branch; ten grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren.

Mrs. Helfert was preceded in death by her husband of 65 years, Wilfred Helfert on April 7, 2013; by her son-in-law, Brian Kissel; two brothers, Don and Paul Lindauer and by a sister, Marian Pigman.

Funeral services for Wanda will be held at 10:00 A.M. on Saturday, July 20, 2013 at Pierre Funeral Home, Rev. Gene Backes officiating. Entombment will follow in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Friends may visit with the family from 2:00 until 8:00 P.M. on Friday and from 9:00 A.M. until service time on Saturday at Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W.

Franklin Street.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to St. James United Methodist Church West, 3111 Hillcrest Terrace, Evansville, IN 47712.

“ Steve, Cindi, Marion, and Jeff,
I am so sorry for your loss. I know it hasn't been that long since your buried your father, now this. I send my warm and deepest sympathy to you and your family at this time of loss. Aunt Wanda was a very special kind of person. Strong and very out spoken in her own little way. A very humorous person and quick to get the last word in and it was always a good come back. I will miss her deeply and if you need anything at all don't hesitate to give me a call. Due to a certain situation I will not be able to attend. But please give my regards to everyone in the family. Love you all. Belinda##imported-begin##Belinda (Lindauer) Hudson ##imported-end##
