Tribute Wall

SB

“ I always relished visits to the Cheshire home on W. Indiana St. when I was growing up. My great Aunt was a Bohleber. Hanging out with my my older cousins Mike, Don and Wayne introduced me to many new things: shooting bottle rockets at pigeons, eating tamales from the "tamale man" who biked the neighborhood, watching bats and moths as they swarmed the street lights, watching forbidden movies through the open windows at the VFW across the street - priceless memories. Peace and love to Jeff, Becky and the Cheshire clan.
