“ Bill and Mike -

*Sorry to hear of your losses. My sister Carol sent me your dads obituary. I'll always remember walking to your house with Connie Majors and then riding to school with you. We also had some great times in Scouting too. May they rest in peace together.

“ It was bittersweet to hear of my Papaw's passing because I know he is happy to be reunited with Mamaw. I will always cherish the wonderful memories I have of him. He was such a loving grandpa and I will miss him. He never had the chance to meet my daughter, Katie, his great-granddaughter, but I will share stories and pictures of him with her. I love you, Papaw!###imported-begin###Kimberlee Austin Burch###imported-end###

“ I will always hold great memories of the time I spent with my Ma-maw and Pa-paw while they were alive. I am sad that my Pa-paw will not get to meet my 3 month old son, William Glenn Austin, IV who was named after him. Whether his name will continue further I don't know. But I hope that the love he had for his family/loved ones continues on through all the generations of his posterity. I hope that his great patriotism continues on as well. What a great man he was, and what a great life he lived!###imported-begin##William Glenn Austin, III###imported-end##

“ I wanted to send my condolences to William's family. I too, know the feeling of loss. It is never easy to have part with our loved ones. The world can seem like a very cold and difficult place. After every rain storm though, there is sun light. Our Creator provides us with a beautiful promise at Revelation 21:3,4. He promises us of a time when the distresses of this world will be a thing of past. I hope that those verses will bring you comfort and hope.###imported-begin##Robert Mile###imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Austin Family at this time. I will always remember Uncle Bill with the jokes and great smile. I am sure that he is in a better place now with his beloved wife, Aunt Louise. I will be thinking of the family in the week ahead.
