“ What a friend he was!! The best story teller that ever existed. My heart aches with his loss. As I learned through the years, his family was so kind and loving, just like Bill. We shared life adventures with each other, solved the world problems, and was a sounding board for each of us while sitting on the swing down by his garden. May God bless him and keep him. May God give strength to his sweet wife, Carol and his family. Jerald
